The Workers Compensation Act requires that the employer must post a copy of this report in a conspicuous place at or near the workplace inspected for at least seven days, or until compliance has been achieved, whichever is the longer period. A copy of this report must also be given to the joint committee or worker health and safety representative, as applicable.

A revised version of the Workers Compensation Act took effect on April 6, 2020. The B.C. government's revisions aim to make the Act easier to read and understand, and to reorganize the numbering to make laws easier to find. The revisions make no changes to B.C.'s laws concerning workers' compensation, occupational health and safety, and employers' assessment premiums. Please be aware there may be a transitional period where correspondence from WorkSafeBC may include references to either the previous Act or the revised Act. INSPECTION NOTES

This Inspection Report documents the receipt and acceptance of the employer's full investigation report that relates to an incident which occurred on April 27, 2023. See inspection report 202318447049A.

I. EMPLOYER INCIDENT INVESTIGATION REPORT (EIIR)

As per section 70 of the Workers Compensation Act, this employer has carried out an investigation. At this time, it is reasonable to believe that as far as possible, the full investigation has determined the cause or causes of the incident, identified any unsafe conditions, acts or procedures that contributed in any manner to the incident, and has recommended corrective action to prevent similar incidents.

As per section 72 of the Workers Compensation Act, the employer has prepared in accordance with the policies of the board of directors, an incident investigation report. The report contains the categories of information that are specified as being required in such reports by the Workers Compensation Act and the policies of the board of directors.

This inspection report is not intended to document agreement or disagreement with the findings and recommendations of the employer's incident investigation report (EIIR). Rather, this inspection report documents that the employer has complied with the requirements of the Workers Compensation Act to prepare a full incident investigation report.

The employer is reminded that without undue delay, they must undertake any corrective action necessary to prevent recurrence of similar incidents. Further, section 72 of the Workers Compensation Act provides that as soon as is practicable, the employer must prepare a report of the corrective actions taken. There is no prescribed form for the corrective actions report.
