INSPECTION NOTES

On January 22, 2024, prevention officer L. Gibbins was notified of an incident at this workplace. The officer spoke by phone, to an employer representative ('the employer') regarding matters of compliance with the Workers Compensation Act (the Act) and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation (the Regulation).

The following information was discussed:

I. INCIDENT

The following information is known about this incident:

- date of incident: January 22, 2024 at 0850h,
- , a worker was working about four feet above grade,
- the worker was pulling material under a tarp,
- the worker slipped and fell to grade,
- the worker sustained unknown back injuries, and
- first responders transported the worker to a hospital.

II. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION and FULL INVESTIGATION (Employer Incident Investigation Report)

The employer stated that a preliminary investigation report was in progress and that a full incident investigation report (EIIR) will be submitted within 30 days of the incident.

A full investigation must be undertaken after the preliminary investigation to identify the cause or causes of an incident. This means analyzing the facts to identify its underlying factors. This includes the underlying factors that made the unsafe condition, act or procedures possible and identify health and safety deficiencies in your firms' safety system or other management system. A copy of the full investigation report must be submitted to WorkSafeBC within 30 days of the incident.

Refer to Regulation Referenced Section for additional information.

II. PLAN

The employer will submit a full incident investigation report (EIIR) for the incident into the employer's portal by February 22, 2024. The employer will also notify this officer in an email, that the EIIR was submitted by this date.

At the time of this inspection no violations of the Workers Compensation Act or the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation were cited. This decision relates only to this inspection date and location noted on this inspection report. A follow-up inspection may occur and/or a Notice of Compliance document may be required if order(s) are noted in a future inspection.
